When I was in my teens, I used to babysit for Otto and Elsie. The boys would go to bed and be asleep right away. Charlotte was about one and she just wouldn't settle for me and cried so hard. I would wake Dean up, get him to hold her and she would go to sleep in minutes! I hope Dean didn't lose any sleep over that but probably not, as he was a sound sleeper. Thank you Dean for being such a great big brother! Rest in peace.
